Subject to the Decision of the Squatter Sovereigns, at the Polls.

Governor Reeder.

We do not hesitate to say, that, in the history of our country, no instance can be found in which an officer, so unfit for any of the duties of his office, so universally self-proven. objectionable to the people interested, so publicly and notoriously guilty of prostituting his official position to personal pecuniary gain, to such infamons purposes, as en to escape impeachment.

From the day of his appointment to the rupt purposes.

For months after his appointment, he W Story's on the Missouri between the two absented himself from his post, though his raged people, we demand his instant disabsented himself from his post, though his necessities of the Territory.
